The Deal

J floor exists to give builders in Zurich a space to build. We are a community of founders, tech builders, and researchers at the earliest stages of their journey. We believe in showing up, getting our hands dirty, and supporting one another along the way.

What we offer. Free workspace and a curated community of founders building in it. Someone makes their first sale, someone gets stuck on a problem you solved last week, someone needs an intro you can make. We optimize for high-agency, boldness, hard work, and organic connections.

There are no membership fees. No equity taken, no structured deals. The space is funded by sponsors who believe in what we are building. See Sponsor Transparency below.

You can access J floor spaces via our digital access, 24/7.

For who. People working on early stage projects looking for a community to build with.

What we expect. You need access to the space because you are actively working on something. You show up, and you participate. Help others, share what you know, give tips, make warm intros. Give before you get.

Admission

To join J floor, you need first a recommendation from a community member. The Board reviews applications and admits new members monthly. Until your membership is confirmed, you may be invited as a guest. By becoming a J floor active member, you agree to the terms below. Every 6 months we require an update on your status.

Member Rights

As a member of the J floor Association, you have the right to:

- Attend and vote at the General Assembly (one member, one vote)
- Request access to the annual report and financial statements by written request to the Board
- Submit motions to the Board or General Assembly
- Stand for election to the Board

These rights are governed by the J floor Statutes.

Main Rules

Show up. J floor works because people are here.

Build. We do not gatekeep on entry, but we expect you to be working on something real.

Participate. Help others. Share what you know. Make introductions. The best communities are built by people who give more than they take.

Respect. Treat the space and the people in it with care. Be someone others want to work alongside. We have zero tolerance for disrespectful behavior or discrimination.

Confidentiality. Respect the privacy of other members. What you see on someone's screen, overhear in conversation, or learn about their work stays within the community. Treat it as confidential.

Association confidentiality. By joining J floor, members agree to maintain the confidentiality of all non-public information relating to the Association, including but not limited to financial data, sponsor arrangements, strategic plans, and Board decisions. This obligation survives termination of membership.

For day-to-day space rules, see the J floor Space Guide.

Membership Agreement

Sponsor Transparency

J floor is funded by sponsors who support the founder ecosystem. We are founder-first. Sponsors do not receive equity in your company, structured deals, or early rights of any kind. We share limited, non-sensitive information about members with sponsors to provide visibility into the community. For full details on what is shared and how your data is handled, see our Privacy Policy.

Termination

By you: You can resign at any time by notifying the Board in writing, in accordance with Art. 6 of the Statutes.

By us: The Board may terminate your membership in cases where the space, other members, or the spirit of the community is not respected. This includes, but is not limited to, inactivity or failure to build. Termination requires a majority Board decision, with written notification.

Appeal: If expelled, you may appeal within 30 days at the next General Assembly. Membership rights are suspended until a final decision is made.

Upon termination, your digital access will be revoked.

Intellectual Property

What you build is yours. J floor makes no claim to any intellectual property, ideas, code, products, or ventures created by members.

Liability

You use J floor at your own risk. J floor is not responsible for loss, theft, or damage to personal belongings or equipment. We recommend you have your own insurance. J floor is not liable for injuries, losses, or damages arising from your use of the space.

Data Protection

J floor collects and processes personal data in accordance with applicable Swiss data protection law. We only process what is necessary for membership administration and the purposes described in this agreement. You have the right to access, correct, or request deletion of your data at any time. For full details, see our Privacy Policy.

Amendments

J floor may update this agreement. Members will be notified of material changes with reasonable notice. Continued use of the space after changes take effect constitutes acceptance.

Legal Bits

J floor is a Swiss association (Verein) under Art. 60 ff. of the Swiss Civil Code. This agreement is governed by Swiss law. The courts of Zurich have exclusive jurisdiction.
